PROFILE

Hi, I'm Akash a business graduate with a heart that beats for film and TV production. With hands-on experience in both the creative world of filmmaking and the structured space of business consulting (marketing and strategic planning), I bring a unique blend of artistic vision and business sense to the table. Whether it's managing a set or solving a strategy puzzle, I'm someone who stays calm under pressure, thrives in a team, and adapts quickly to new challenges. Known for my creative instincts, eye for detail, and people-first approach, I'm always ready to dive into projects with passion, precision, and purpose.
